ACCESS GRANTED

The instantly accessible, totally interactive way to get adaptive digital content of your course materials at a reduced cost.

---

FAQS:

Q: How do I know if my course is an Access Granted course?

A: The designation is listed on the class schedule, course syllabus and on the Supe Store website.

Q: How many Access Granted courses are offered at UA?

A: We are piloting the program in Summer 2018 and will roll out the program campuswide beginning Fall 2018.

Q: How much money will I save if I use the Access Granted course content rather than traditional course materials?

A: Price will vary by course, but Access Granted course content is designed to save you money.

Q: How do I pay for the Access Granted course content?

A: Your student account is charged for course materials plus applicable sales tax after the add/drop deadline.

Q: How do I get my course content after I register for the course?

A: You will receive login credentials via email for an Access Granted account when you register for the Access Granted course. Check with your professor.

Q: If I register for an Access Granted course, am I required to use the content provided?

A: No, you can opt out before the add/drop deadline if you would rather not have access to the content, and your student account will not be charged for the content.

Q: How do I opt out?

A: Click “view course details” after logging into your account. Choose “opt out.”

Q: If I opt out of the Access Granted program, where do I get course materials for the class?

A: You can search nationwide.

Q: What if I decide to drop the Access Granted class altogether?

A: In order to avoid any charges to your student account, you must opt out of the Access Granted program before the add/drop deadline.
In an effort to assist with student affordability, success and retention, the Supe Store is introducing the Access Granted program to instructors and students at The University of Alabama.

Every student enrolled in an Access Granted course can be prepared because they will have access to the course content on day one.

The course content is available by accessing your course through Blackboard.

You can opt out of the Access Granted program before the add/drop deadline.

Print options can be purchased at an additional charge and when available.

The charge for the Access Granted course content is an affordable option.

Access Granted allows course content to be instantly accessible, totally interactive and adaptive while reducing the cost to students.

Access Granted eliminates the stress of trying to find the right course materials for your class and saves you money at the same time.

If you’re enrolled in a class that is designated as Access Granted, it means that your instructor has worked with the Supe Store to grant you special access to the materials needed for that class.

You can be more prepared for the course because you will have access to the course content on day one.

For more information about how to use Access Granted, stop by the Supe Store or visit our website.

SupeStore.ua.edu