

Inclusive Classrooms, Inclusive Campus

An Inclusive Classroom Teaching Symposium

Friday, February 12, 2016 | 11:00 am | 205 Gorgas Library

Welcome

Lane McLelland, Director of The Crossroads Community Center

Inclusive Classroom Preparation

Introduction: Classroom Preparation

Barbara Brickman | New College and Dept. of Gender and Race Studies

Critical Pedagogy and the Syllabus as Foundational Introduction

Jay Garvey | Dept. of Educational Leadership, Policy, and Technology Studies

Creating an Assignment: Students Teach About Diverse Audiences

Caryl Cooper | Dept. of Advertising and Public Relations

Group Breakout Session

Break for Lunch — 12:00

Inclusive Classroom Management

Approaches to Diversity and Inclusion in Large Lecture and Small Seminar Classes

Marcus Ashford | Dept. of Mechanical Engineering

Problem-Solving Approaches of Underrepresented Student Groups in STEM Courses

Viola Acoff | Dept. of Metallurgical & Materials Engineering

Promoting Awareness of and Incorporating International Perspectives in Classrooms

Fran Oneal | Capstone International Center

Group Breakout Session

Collaboratively sponsored by UA Crossroads, the Inclusive Campus Faculty Focus Group, and the Office for Academic Affairs