

Shelby Scholars Lecture Series

---

ANAT SULTAN-DADON

Consul General of Israel to the Southeastern U.S.

ABOUT OUR GUEST

Anat Sultan-Dadon assumed her role as Consul General of Israel to the Southeastern United States in 2019.

Sultan-Dadon joined the Israeli diplomatic corps in 2004 and has held various positions at the Embassies of Israel in Cameroon, Germany, the Netherlands, and Australia, as well as positions in the Euro-Asia and the Asia-Pacific Divisions at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Jerusalem.

She earned a B.A. in Psychology and Education from The Hebrew University of Jerusalem and a master's Degree in Criminology with high honors at the same institution. In 2020, she was honored by Morehouse College with induction into the Martin Luther King Jr. International College of Ministers and Laity. In her current role in Atlanta, the Consul General is responsible for advancing the bilateral relations between Israel and seven southeastern states: Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi.

CURRENT AFFAIRS

On Wednesday, May 8, 2024, Alabama established the Alabama-Israel Legislative Caucus. This bipartisan and bicameral caucus serves as a platform for strengthening the bilateral relations between Alabama and the State of Israel in the political, economic, cultural, and academic realms. The founding co-chairs of the Alabama-Israel Legislative Caucus represent a diverse and bipartisan coalition dedicated to advancing the relationship between Alabama and Israel.

*Friday, September 6, 2024
4 pm at Tuomey Hall*