PETER MOHLER

President, University of Alabama

ABOUT OUR GUEST

Dr. Peter Mohler began his tenure as the 30th president of The University of Alabama on July 21, 2025. A nationally recognized leader in higher education, Dr. Mohler brings to UA a distinguished record of advancing research, innovation, academic excellence and collaboration.

Before joining UA, he served for about 15 years at The Ohio State University, where his leadership roles included executive vice president for research, innovation and knowledge; chief scientific officer of the Wexner Medical Center; and acting university president.

Dr. Mohler is a Pew Scholar in Biomedical Sciences and an Outstanding Investigator of the American Heart Association, and he has authored over 250 articles.

A proud product of undergraduate education in the South, Dr. Mohler was drawn to UA's powerful alignment of academic excellence, athletic tradition and shared purpose. He and his wife, Nancy, are excited to be part of the UA community. They have three children: Eleanor, Caroline and John.
